4. Clients' obligations under Derivative Transactions

- 4.1. Before placing Orders for Derivative Transactions, the Client shall read and understand the Rules of the Trading Venue in which the Derivative Contract is listed, and the Specification of a Derivative contract in respect of which the Client places an Order. Any amendments and modifications thereto shall be followed by the Client. The Client shall be held solely liable for any risks related to his/her failure to become aware of the foregoing documents, including amendments and modifications thereto.
- 4.2. On his/her own accord the Client shall monitor any circumstances which may cause forced position Closing or Option Expiration.
- 4.3. The Client shall be held liable for incurring debt under the Broker's Account. If, upon execution of Derivative Contracts or execution of obligations thereunder, a debt remains outstanding under the Broker's Account, then the Client shall settle this debt immediately.

The debt may be settled as follows:

- crediting of additional Funds to the Broker's Account.
 - placing Orders to close all or a part of previously opened positions under Derivative Contracts.
 - placing Orders to sell Securities.
- 4.4. If the Client fails to settle a debt under his/her Broker's Account during the day when it became due, then his/her obligation to settle the debt shall be deemed in default and the Client shall repay the Broker a penalty charged on a daily basis as follows:
 - The penalty shall be charged against the actual debt outstanding at the end of the Trading Session (if applicable) or as at the end of the previous Trading Session, if the penalty is charged for a non-trading day; and
 - The penalty shall be charged daily according to the Margin Rates indicated on Broker's website as per the service plan which has been selected by the Client while opening a trading account or chosen by him/her as an option in the Client's Cabinet.
 - 4.5. If the Client fails to settle a debt under the Broker's Account, the Broker shall be at liberty to make transactions in the Trading System on behalf of the Client directed at the closing of positions under Derivative Contracts with no need for additional Client's orders. For this purpose, the Broker shall have the right, at its sole discretion, to close any Client's positions (Client's liabilities arising from Derivative Contracts), to change prices in active requests transferred to the Trading System based on Client's Orders, and to cancel all or a part of Client's Orders, as well as to place new Client's Orders at the current market price established in the Trading System.
 - 4.6. If the Broker has made transactions related to the closing of Positions under the Client's Derivative Contracts, however, the Client's liability under the Broker's Account was not paid off in full, the Broker shall have the right, at its own discretion, to:
 - notify the Client via Trading Platform, or by way of any other durable medium as described in the Terms of Business of a necessity to repay the debt under the Broker's Account specifying the amount and due date. In this case, the Clients shall be held liable for Reserving the required amount on the Broker's Account within the time specified in such notice.
 - without additional Client's Orders to ensure collateral on the Broker's Account of Client's Funds in respect of the outstanding debt by selling Securities on the Client's Account whichever the Broker sees fit in order to obtain Funds sufficient for repayment of Client's debt before the Broker. For this purpose, the Client does hereby authorize the Broker to sell any Securities on the Client's Account whichever the Broker sees fit to obtain Funds sufficient for repayment of the Client's debt before the Broker.
